

ABSTRACT

A non-asbestos friction material is made by molding 5 and curing a composition comprising a fibrous base, a filler, a binder, and tin and/or tin sulfide and exhibits excellent wear resistance and less metal pickup at high temperatures.